This is a great opportunity to obtain this busy, up-and-running business including the ownership of the commercial unit and all the fixtures and fittings in a prime position within the bustling, all-year-round coastal town of Garrucha. Garrucha is also a popular coastal resort, attracting international tourism throughout the year thanks to its harbour and local fishing, as well as proximity to other coastal resorts such as Vera Playa and Mojacar.

The property is situated on the main street through Garrucha, meaning there is plenty of passing traffic and is generally well known with the locals, making it a popular spot for both locals and tourists alike. The property is actually distributed over two floors, the upper floor, accessed from ground level to the front, is the main bar and restaurant section of the property with a large dining area, the main bar, fully-equipped kitchen, disabled toilet as well as the important outside dining area. The lower floor includes the main toilets for both men and gentlemen, plus a vast storage area.
